

BAELc11

Friday, 24 June 2022
11:00-11:50		Registration
11:50	Elisabeth Reber	Conference opening
Chair: Pawel Sickinger
12:00-12:30	Stefanie Rottschäfer + Laura Petersen	"What are they talking about?" – Discourse strategies in multilingual families using English as a lingua franca
12:30-13:00	Cheng Lyu	Internal modifications in German ELF requests
13:00-13:30	Alina Schuster	"You're most welcome!" Responding to thanks in Malaysian English
13:30-15:00		Lunch break
Chair: Lionel Sango
15:00-15:30	Lisa Altendorf	German students' extramural online activities and how they relate to English proficiency
15:30-16:00	Nadya Izzaamiouine	Intercultural Communicative Competence in foreign language teaching and learning: A comparison of the situation in Morocco and Germany in tertiary education
16:00-16:30	Rebeca Company Almagro	Review Response by Students of Tourism: A Corpus Linguistics Approach
16:30-16:45		Coffee break
Chair: Stefanie Rottschäfer
16:45-17:15	Ragnhild Hinderling	„Someone needs to beat this MAN to death 😊“ – Investigating Differences in Target-Based Online Hate Speech on TikTok
17:15-17:45	Hanna Bruns	"Es ist an uns, liebe Freundinnen und Freunde" – A diachronic study on gender-fair language use in German and English
18:00		Conference dinner at Tuscolo , Gerhard-von-Are-Str. 8, Bonn

BAELc11

Saturday, 25 June 2022

Chair: Elisabeth Reber

10:00-11:00	Keynote lecture by Susanne Mohr Critical perspectives on applied linguistics and tourism research
11:00-12:00	Poster Pitch + Coffee break + Poster session*
Chair: Hanna Bruns
12:00-12:30	Leda Berio, Kurt Erbach, Daniel James, Benedict Kenyah-Dampthey, and Esther Seyffarth	Conceptions and concepts of race: a cross-linguistic analysis
12:30-13:00	Louis Lee	"I WANT YOU" A Close Look to Persuasion Techniques used in The Voice US
13:00-13:30	Kathryn Sherwood	Politeness in Manga and Their Translations: A Comparison of Japanese Politeness Strategies with its English Translation in the Manga Yotsubato
13:30-14:00	Asma Elasfour	Translating government information on the COVID-19 pandemic: English as a lingua franca in Germany
14:00	Elisabeth Reber	Conference closing

Poster presentations (Saturday, 25 June 2022, 11:00-12:00)

Ayyah Albarouni	Translation into Modern Standard Arabic: The case of translating government information on the COVID-19 pandemic
Hassan Banaruee	Metaphor Aptness across Cultures
Mariia Ivakhova	A Contrastive Study of Complimenting and Compliment Responses among German and Ukrainian Speakers
Swantje Leiting	With a great compliment comes a great response-ibility: Upgraders and downgraders in written compliment responses in English English and Malaysian English
Lisa Lubomierski	Investigating German multimodal requests in instant messaging
Sallar Mahdi Kamo	A Comparative Study of Politeness in German and Kurdish Kurmanji Business Negotiations
Annalena Marticke	A cross-cultural and diachronic investigation: Offensive language use in British and Australian drama series
Rebecca Parisi	Impoliteness in comedy series – investigating strong swear words among British and American TV series from a diachronic perspective
Emma Schmidt	Recognizing linguistic plurality during times of crisis: Assessing the quality of online English medical translations on Covid-19 by official health authorities in Germany and Luxembourg
Farzaneh Tavoosi Iraj	An Analysis of Students' Emails